

United Nations

Department of Economic and Social Affairs

Virtual Workshop on the Promotion of Intergenerational Equity for Sustainable Development

UN CEPA Principles of Effective Governance

8 March 2022 8-10 AM (Eastern Standard time)

WORKSHOP ON THE PROMOTION OF INTERGENERATIONAL EQUITY FOR SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT

CEPA Principles of Effective Governance

8 March 2022, 8 a.m. to 10.a.m. (EST)

Facilitator: Dr. Aminata Touré, Former Prime Minister of Senegal, Member of the Committee of Experts on Public Administration (CEPA)

8.00 -8:10 a.m.	Setting the stage Ms. Maria Francesca Spatolisano, Assistant Secretary-General for Policy Co-ordination and Inter-Agency Affairs, UN DESA
8:10 – 9:00 a.m.	National Perspectives Mr. Joakim Strand, Chairperson, Committee for the Future of Parliament, Finland Ms. Sophie Howe, Future Generations Commissioner for Wales, United Kingdom Dr. Dunstone Ulwodi, Assistant Director, National Treasury and Planning, Kenya Mr. Jerry V. DeMarco, Commissioner of the Environment and Sustainable Development, Canada, and Ms. Kimberley Leach, Principal, Officer of the Auditor General, Canada Ms. Sara Sekkenes, United Nations Resident Coordinator, Laos
9:00 – 9.45 a.m.	Strategies to operationalize intergenerational equity Mr. Patrick Spearing, CEPA Secretary Emeritus Professor Richard K. Morgan, University of Otago, Dunedin, New Zealand, on impact assessment for sustainable development

	Mr. José Maurel, Founder, Public Debt Management Practice (Mauritius) and former Director, Special Advisory Services Division, Commonwealth Secretariat on long-term public debt management Mr. Frank J. D'hondt, Director Territorial Capital Institute and Secretary-General of the International Society of City and Regional Planners on long-term territorial planning and spatial development Dr. Geoffrey Garver, McGill University, Canada on ecosystem management Ms. Cat Tully, Founder and Managing Director, School of International Futures
9:45 – 10:00 a.m.	Discussion of ways forward and closing