SDGs territorialisation approach

National Development Plan – Productivity and equity regional pacts

- The regional pacts for productivity and equity define development visions and strategic projects prioritized by the regions themselves to boost their economies and take advantage of their capabilities.
- Each regional pact represents a roadmap for a coordinated investment approach in the territory, as well as the articulation of efforts between levels of government.
- 100% of the indicators and targets of the regional pacts are linked with one or more SDG targets
