Welcome to the United Nations Public Administration Network

UNPAN is a global network that connects relevant international, regional, subregional and national institutions and experts worldwide working on effective governance and public administration for sustainable development in line with Goal 16 of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development.

UNPAN Members

UNPAN is coordinated by the United Nations Department of Economic and Social Affairs, Division for Public Institutions and Digital Government (DPIDG). The Network is managed in close partnership with a group of international, regional and subregional institutions devoted to governance and public institutions for sustainable development. Sustainable Development Goals

The 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development, adopted by all United Nations Member States in 2015, provides a shared blueprint for peace and prosperity for people and the planet, now and into the future. At its heart are the 17 Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), which are an urgent call for action by all countries - developed and developing - in a global partnership. Read more...

UNPAN Members

The UNPAN Members are global, regional and national institutions. UNPAN Associate Members are individuals who serve in their personal capacity. UNPAN Members and Associate Members have demonstrated commitment to advancing knowledge and/or capacity development in the area of governance and public administration and sustainable development. Membership is for a period of five years with the possibility of extension.

Why is changing mindsets critical to institutional effectiveness and policy coherence?

Training Toolkits at a Glance

Changing Mindsets in Public Institutions to Implement the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development

Related SDGs: SDG 16

Keywords: Mindsets, Attitudes, Competencies

Language: English

Learning Outcomes:

The training workshop aims to provide a set of methodologies and tools that can contribute to a change in the environment, culture and mentality of public servants in implementing the SDGs in the context of the 2030 Agenda. The workshop approaches transforming mindsets in the public sector as the result of three interlinked factors: transforming mindsets (1) at the institutional level through new human resources laws, regulations, policies and regulations; (2) at the organizational level through a new organizational culture inspired by the principles of the 2030 Agenda; and (3) at the individual level through new beliefs, values, competencies and skills.

Upon completion of the training, learners will have:

- Enhanced knowledge of the underlying principles of the 2030 Agenda; and of why public servants need to change mindsets and behaviors to accelerate action on the SDGs;
- Gained insights about the new values, mindsets, competences and skills needed to realize the 2030 Agenda;
- Expanded awareness of the changes needed at the individual, organizational, and institutional levels to effectively change mindsets;
- Acquired practical hands-on knowledge (and skills) on how to trigger change at different government levels (individual and organizational);
- Developed a roadmap and an action plan to apply relevant knowledge.
